

The Olive Mill

Pappous Village Taverna

Since extensive refurbishment The Olive Mill at Chilton Polden is now maturing beautifully with age. It is definitely the 'place to be seen'; the contemporary surroundings have a European flavour and allow you to unwind and be waited on by a pleasant team of staff.

The Pappous menu offers lunch and dinner dishes with Mediterranean inspiration and the selection of dishes is simply outstanding. Whilst choosing what to indulge in for your main course why not sample some home-made dips with toasted pitta bread. The selection of dips includes taramasalata, houmous, minestra del giorno and tzatziki.

A delicious and unusual starter is the mouth-watering goats cheese mousse with grilled aubergine salad, onion relish and pesto sauce £5.95. Mezzo Gamberi suitably mixes pan fried shrimps with a citrus orange sauce and shredded mango salad £5.95. For a meat option, the Loukanika Horiatika, smoked cypriot pork sausage served with salad £3.95 is a delicious authentic Cyprian dish.

There also many pasta, pizza and risotto options made from traditional Mediterranean ingredients.

The main course dishes reflect the talents of the chef and his team. Dolmades - vine leaves stuffed with minced pork served with rice and a mixed green leaf salad £11.95, Chicken Florentine - grilled chicken breast on a bed of baby spinach salad, potato gnocchi and lemon butter sauce £12.95.

The pork plait is an unusual yet delicious option, with pork tenderloin served with mash potato, avocado stuffed with feta mousse and chasseur sauce £15.95.

Pappou's steaks are cooked to order and served with Italian fried potatoes, tomato and onion salad and pan fried mushrooms. Steaks are served with a choice of pink peppercorn and Gorgonzola sauce. Fresh fish specials change daily; please ask one of the efficient members of staff for more details.

All dishes use local produce where possible, obviously exceptions have to be made for the more exotic dishes. All dishes are presented elegantly and leave you excited to begin your meal.

The extensive wine list of chardonnay, sauvignon blanc, rioja, merlot, champagne and sparkling wines. Spirits are also available at the bar along with beer, lager, cider and soft drinks.
